THE VICTORIA CROSS

CONTINUED FROM

"The Monthly Army Lists" of March, June, July, October and December, 1857, January, February, May, July, September, October and November, 1858, January, February, May, June, July, August, October, November and December, 1859, February, March, June, July, September, October and December, 1860, March, April, August and September, 1861, March, June, July and December, 1862, May, 1863, and February, August, September, October and December, 1864, August, 1865, January, 1866, February, 1867, and January, 1868.

War Office, December 31st, 1867.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officers, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their gallant conduct in Bhootan, as recorded against their names, viz.:—

Royal (late Bengal) Engineers.—Major William Spotfiswoode Trevor; Lieutenant James Dundas.—Act of Bravery for which recommended.—For their gallant conduct at the attack on the Block-house at Dewan-Giri, in Bhootan, on the 30th of April, 1865.

Major General Tombs, C.B., V.C., the officer in command at the time, reports that a party of the enemy, from 180 to 200 in number, had barricaded themselves in the Block-house in question, which they continued to defend after the rest of the position had been carried and the main body was in retreat. The Block-house, which was loop-holed, was the key of the enemy's position. Seeing no officer of the storming party near him, and being anxious that the place should be taken immediately, as any protracted resistance might have caused the main body of the Bhooteas to rally, the British force having been fighting in a broiling sun on very steep and difficult ground for upwards of three hours, the General in command ordered these two officers to show the way into the Block-house. They had to climb up a wall which was fourteen feet high, and then to enter a house, occupied by some 200 desperate men, head foremost through an opening not more than two feet wide between the top of the wall and the roof of the Block-house.

Major General Tombs states that on speaking to the Sikh soldiers around him, and telling them in Hindoostani to swarm up the wall, none of them responded to the call until these two officers had shewn them the way, when they followed with the greatest alacrity. Both of them were wounded.

Clause 10.—Increased Pay on Re-engagement.

Soldiers enlisted under the Army Service Act of 1847, who took their discharge on the completion of their first term of service, and afterwards re-enlisted for 10 years, within the prescribed time to admit of their reckoning their former service towards good conduct pay and pension, may, on the completion of two-thirds of their existing engagement, be specially re-engaged under the Army Enlistment Act, 1867, to establish their claim to the additional penny a-day granted under the Royal Warrant of 29th June last.

Such re-engagements are to be made for such further period in years and days as will, when added to the time the soldier is entitled to reckon towards the completion of limited engagement under his then existing engagement, complete 21 years's service; but the soldier is to be entitled to come up for pension and discharge from his reengagement so soon as he shall have completed a total period of service entitling him to pension and discharge under his former enlistments and re-engagements.

Soldiers so re-engaging will not be entitled to bounty or free kit.

Cl. 11.—Rations, Officers' Servants.

The following regulations for the messing and rations of officers' servants are promulgated for general information:—

1. When the passage money, payable by the public, for servants, includes messing or rations, and is the same for a male as for a female, officers will be charged 9d. a-day for each servant of either sex.

2. When the rate of passage money includes messing or rations, and is greater for a female than for a male, the difference of passage money will be charged against the officer: 9d. a-day in addition being charged for rations.

- Male servants within the number allowed by regulation, will be charged for at the rate of $\textit{gata}$. a-day each for rations. The whole expense of passage and rations of servants in excess of that number. will be charged to the officer.
- 4. When daily rates (exclusive of passage money) are paid for the rations of servants entitled to conveyance at the public expense, 9d. a-day will be charged for a male, and 2s. a-day for female servants, unless the latter are paid for at the same rate only as for soldiers' wives, in which case the actual cost of messing, if less than 2s. a-day, will be charged.
- When servants are rationed on Government provisions, and no separate payment is made on account of rations, the charge both for male or female servants will be %.
- Servants messed on board her Majesty's troop ships, where there is a general mess, will be charged for at the rate of 9d. a-day for male and 2s. a-day for female servants.
- 7. When male servants within the regulated number accompany an officer, no special application will be made to the War Office for recovery of the charge against him for his servants' rations; but when any portion of his family is also conveyed, the charge for servants, male or female, will be included in the amount reported to the War Office for recovery.

Cl. 12.—Contingent Allowance.

In depôt hattalions where interchangeable arms in excess of establishment are issued for drilling recruits, the deduction of 1s. per annum, from the captains' contingent allowance, need only be made for the number for which contingent allowance is drawn.

anowance, need only be made for the number for which contingent anowance is drawn. The allowance of 8d. per arm hitherto granted for repair of arms will cease, the interchangeable arms being repaired at the public expense.

Cl. 18.—Forage.

Forage in kind, or the allowance in lieu, may be granted to commissariat officers of the rank of Deputy Assistant Commissary General, when it is certified by the senior commissariat officer at the station, and by the general or other officer commanding, that it is necessary they should be mounted for the proper performance of their duties.

Cl. 14.—Travelling Allowances to Soldiers Discharged as Settlers.

Whenever a soldier shall be discharged abroad with a view to become a settler in a colony, he and his family may be conveyed at the public expense to any station of the military command in which he may wish to settle. Such soldier and his family will also be allowed subsistence-money for the period of their journey.

Should the soldier wish to proceed to any place not within the military command, he may be allowed in aid of the journey a sum equal to the expense of the passage, and subsistence, to the military station in the command nearest to the place of his intended residence.

Cl. 15.—Railway and Passage Warrants.

On the embarkation of a corps for foreign service, the paymaster will make arrangements with the regimental agents to meet all railway and passage warrants which have been issued by him, and which are still outstanding. A list of all such outstanding warrants will be transmitted by the paymaster to the agents hadore he embarks.

Cl. 16.-Waterproof Clothing.

The waterproof clothing issued for garrison and camp services, under Army Circulars, 1867, Clause 38, will be accounted for by the officer in charge of the Quartermaster General's Department at the station in his half-yearly return of stores on "Local Charge," as prescribed by War Office Circular, No. 868, dated 17th June, 1864.

Cl. 17.—Compensation to Men Re-engaging.

Commanding officers are informed that the compensation authorized by Clause 54, 8, Army Circulars, 1867, is to be calculated "for the unexpired periods of wear," instead of "from the date of re-anguement to the Stat March."

Compensation in lieu of the unexpired period of wear of biennial articles of clothing

(if in their second year's wear) may be paid to the men re-engaging in the first quarter of the financial year, in addition to the compensation granted by § 2 of the regulation quoted above, in lieu of the new clothing to which the men become entitled on the lat April.

Cl. 18.-Prices of Necessaries. (See Appendix.)

- 1. The accompanying list of prices will regulate the sums to be charged to the troops for all necessaries issued on payment on and after the lst April next, except at those foreign stations where this circular shall not have been received on that date, in which cases the prices contained in the Appendix to Clause 8, Army Circulars, 1867, will continue in force until the receipt of the present circular at the station. The date of such receipt will be inserted in the kit account.
- 2. If any articles, other than those detailed in the accompanying lists, be required on payment, a separate requisition will be forwarded for them, and they will not be included in the annual account of free kits and regimental necessaries. Payment for such articles will be made during the quarter in which they are received, or (in the event of their being received during the last month of the quarter) in the succeeding quarter. Care will therefore be taken that no larger quantities are at any time demanded than the regiment is prepared to pay for in the manner above prescribed.
- Serge and duck frocks and fatigue trousers (although not articles of necessaries), and serjeants' forage caps, may be accounted for in the annual account of free kit and regimental necessaries.
- 4. Any articles of clothing which may be sold to the troops under the authority contained in paragraph 59 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, will, if included in the annexed list, be charged for at the rates quoted in such list, and not at prices based on the compensation value as prescribed in the said warrant.
- 5. It has been decided that yellow soap for sea kits shall henceforth be issued by the piece instead of by welght; officers commanding will be careful to include it after requisitions for sea kit necessaries the number of pieces of soap equivalent, at four pieces per pound, to the quantities prescribed by weight in paragraph 88 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, for troops embarking for various foreign stations.
- 6. Serge and Oxford turtan trousers and any articles of necessaries which have been omitted from the accompanying list as obsolete will, if on charge, be sold at the rates laid down in the most recent circular list of prices in which such articles may have been included.

Cl. 19. - Issue of Rugs and Blankets.

In reference to the regulations which govern the issue of a third blanket to troops in severe weather, and of a rug when proceeding in coasting vessels, the Secretary of State for War has decided as follows, viz.:—

- 1. When a third blanket is supplied to the unmarried soldier, a third blanket may also be supplied for each of the two sets of bedding issued to the married soldier.
- 2. The attention of commanding officers is again called to the necessity of transmitting these returns immediately they become due, much inconvenience being caused by the late date at which they have been hitherto received from certain regiments.

A supply of new forms will be furnished from the War Office.

GEN. ORDERS-continued.

G.O. 18.-Musketry.

1. The annexed return (Appendix B) showing the corps serving in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the North American Provinces, which have completed a course of musketry instruction for the year 1867-8, together with their "figure of merit,"—the percentages of men in 1st and 3rd classes in shooting,—of those in 1st class in judging distance,—and of non-exercised men,—also the results of the independent and skirmishing practices in the Infantry,—and of the mounted practice in the Cavairy,—is published for general information and guidance.

2. The Field Marshal Commanding in Chief observes with satisfaction, in this return, a marked improvement in the shooting of the troops, notwithstanding the reduction in the amount of preliminary instruction sanctioned by the existing musketry regulations; and while fully disposed to give the new breech-loading arms all the credit to which they are entitled, he feels it due to commanding officers, and others charged with the training of the men, to place on record his conviction that the gratifying progress which has been made this year is in no small degree attributable to the increased attention which has been bestowed on the instruction of the troops.

3. The general results of the shooting of the several Infantry battalions during the past and previous years will be found contrasted in the following table:—

Year.	Number of 1	nber of Battalions whose Shooting is
	Very Good.	Good.	Moderate.	Total.
1866-7 1867-8	13 40	32 25	84 10	79 75

and although the practices from which the "figure of merit" is compiled are most satisfactory, his Royal Highness is compelled again to advert to the fact that the independent firing is frequently very indifferent, which he can only attribute to undue importance being attached to mere rapidity of fire, and to a want of attention to deliberate aim being taken by each soldier during the practice.

4. The return of the 2nd Battalion 14th Regiment was not received in time to appear in the last annual report of the Inspector General. It has now come to hand; and an abstract thereof (with an indication of the place which the battalion would have occupied in the figure of merit of the army), is appended to the annexed table.

5. The following correction in the report for 1867-8 is also notified, viz.:—Omit that part of par. 85, p. 52, which refers to Private Bucksey, Scots Fusilier Guards, as it now appears the points recorded against his name in the battalion annual return were incorrect, and that he did not, as originally stated, judge distance oftener in an inferior class than the regulations of the service allow.
